

EDITORIAL BOARD MEMBER PROFILE

Name:

Dr. Imtiyaz Ahmad Bhat, Ph.D.

Designation:

Assistant Professor, Department of Social Science and Languages, JB Institute of Engineering and Technology, Hyderabad, Telangana

Ph.D. Supervisor, Desh Bhagat University, Punjab

Email: bimtiyaz9@gmail.com

Nationality: Indian

Academic Qualification (Highest):

Ph.D. in English – University of Lucknow

Professional Summary:

Dr. Imtiyaz Ahmad Bhat is a scholar of Postcolonial Literature, Trauma Studies, Gender Studies, and Linguistics with extensive teaching and research experience across reputed Indian institutions. His academic work reflects an interdisciplinary commitment to critical inquiry, cultural discourse, and the decolonization of literature.

Teaching & Academic Experience:

- Assistant Professor, JB Institute of Engineering and Technology, Hyderabad
- Ph.D. Supervisor, Desh Bhagat University, Punjab
- Former Assistant Professor at Sri Indu College of Engineering & Technology, Degree College Kupwara, and Govt. Degree College for Women Srinagar
- Experience at Sri Pratap Singh College and GDC Baramulla
- Supervising six Ph.D. scholars in linguistics and literature

Areas of Specialization / Research Interests:

Postcolonial Literature • Trauma Studies • Gender Studies • Linguistics • Migration Studies

Publications & Research Contributions:

- Research papers in Scopus and UGC-CARE indexed journals
- Notable works include studies on trauma, identity, gender, and postcolonial memory
- Manuscripts under review with OUP and Taylor & Francis journals
- Book chapters on post-apocalyptic literature, gender politics, and memory narratives

Academic Engagements & Roles:

- Reviewer for multiple national & international journals
- Presented at AICTE, Ministry of Education Masterclass Series, and global conferences
- Completed FDPs including ATAL FDP on Space Engineering and advanced teaching skills

Honours & Recognitions:

- Recognized for research excellence in literature, linguistics, and interdisciplinary studies
- Known for contributions to inclusive pedagogy and academic mentorship