EDITORIAL BOARD MEMBER PROFILE

Name:

Dr. Krishan Kumar, Ph.D.

Designation:

Assistant Professor of Political Science, School of Liberal and Creative Arts, Lovely Professional University, Punjab
Email: krishankumar1794@gmail.com
Nationality: Indian

Academic Qualification (Highest):

Ph.D. in Political Science – Panjab University, Chandigarh

Professional Summary:

Dr. Krishan Kumar is an accomplished academic and researcher specializing in Dalit studies, marginalized communities, human rights, and political sociology. His doctoral work compared Gandhian and Ambedkarite perspectives on social inclusion, reflecting his commitment to social justice scholarship.

Teaching & Academic Experience:

• Assistant Professor, Lovely Professional University
• Former Head, Department of Political Science, Desh Bhagat University
• Former Head, Department of Human Rights, DAV College for Girls, Yamuna Nagar
• Coordinator, Bharat College of Law
• Supervises five Ph.D. scholars in political science and human rights

Areas of Specialization / Research Interests:

Dalit Studies • Marginalized Communities • Human Rights • Political Sociology • Caste Politics

Publications & Research Contributions:

• Author of seven books including: United Nations: Myth and Reality; The Conflict Resolution; South Asia ki Rajniti
• Research papers, book reviews, and articles in journals and media platforms such as The Print, The Mooknayak, Justice News
• Manuscript 'Reading Caste Now' under review with Springer

Academic Engagements & Roles:

• Founder, International Ambedkarites Network
• Organizer of national workshops on research methodology and social justice
• Convener for ICSSR-funded seminars on social inclusion and Ambedkarite philosophy

Honours & Recognitions:

• Vishavshanti Manav Seva Samman 2022 for contributions to marginalized communities
• Invited speaker at national and international conferences including Brandeis University and Royal University of Bhutan